INTRODUCTION VIDEOS

YOUR INTRO VIDEO IS YOUR MAKE OR BREAK FIRST IMPRESSION TO A NEW EMPLOYER.

In today's competitive job market, you cannot underestimate the importance of a good intro video.

At TEFL Freedom, we see hundreds of introduction videos from applicants each week. So, what are our top tips to get your application to the top of our pile? TEFL Freedom's guide, produced in collaboration with our partners Kids English Thailand, is here to tell you how to make sure your application goes to the top of the pile!

FANTASTIC GUIDE

PARTNERS KIDS

TOP TIPS

KEEP IT SHORT AND SNAPPY

When creating any kind of video content, it's always best to do so with the audience and purpose in mind. So remember the purpose of your video is to show your future employers how you communicate rather than a comprehensive career history. Don't worry too much about detail - this is what your CV is for. Be the person you are in front of your students - show them who their students will be working with each day!

PRESENTATION

Dress how you would expect a teacher to dress for work. This may not necessarily be suited and booted - we suggest business casual in a tidy setting.

TECHNICAL DETAILS

Nobody is expected to submit a Hollywood provided trailer, but remember that the amount of effort you put into this will be a signal to employers of your attention to detail. A simple video shot on a normal phone is fine, but try and make sure you take care of these basics:

A well lit area - so that you are nice and visible.

You can be clearly heard (try and avoid background noise)

Camera work - the camera should be angle straight so that you are looking directly into it rather than up or down. Use a tripod or a stand if you have one, if not put it on a surface so the it is completely still.

HAVE A SCRIPT!

The trick is to have a script without sounding scripted. Some people find writing question prompts for themselves as cue cards and answering them for the video helps to give a more natural flow.

Need help with your script? Take a look at this example from Kid English Thailand for some inspiration:

EXAMPLE SCRIPT FROM KIDS ENGLISH THAILAND

1. My name is ...
2. I am a teacher
3. I am from..... (country you hold a passport for)
4. I hold a bachelor's degree in ...
5. In my classroom, students won't be sad; they will be happy!
6. I can help students to have perfect pronunciation- now pronounce five random words to showcase your pronunciation
7. I love to teach and can teach any age, from 3-18.
8. In the classroom, I am kind, friendly, and patient.
9. If students make mistakes, it is okay! I can help students practice so they are confident in all areas of English, including listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
10. I look forward to working at your school.
11. Thank you.

Remember to be expressive, smile, and let your personality shine through!
