THE PERFECT RESUME

Crafting the Perfect Resume to Secure Your Dream Teaching Position Abroad

Hi there!

Are you struggling to secure a teaching position abroad? Is your resume lacking the ability to be seen and taken seriously?

Worry no more! Follow our instructions on how to create the resume that will open doors for you. Let's start by telling you what you need on your resume to make those doors swing wide open.

● First impressions last the longest.

Your resume must read like a personal profile, showcasing who you are and detailing your history as an educator. Here's a step-by-step guide to make your resume stand out:

- Personal Profile: Begin with a brief introduction about yourself. Highlight your passion for teaching and your dedication to student success.
- Supply information on countries you taught schools in.
- Professional Experience:
  - List each school you've taught at from year to year.
  - Include the age group of the students and the subjects you taught.
  - Provide a summary of your duties at each school.
  - Include the name and contact details of each school.
- Educational Background:
  - Detail your degrees and certifications such as SACE, TEFL, TESOL, IELTS, and any others you have obtained.

Referral Letters:

- Gather as many referral letters as possible from all the schools you've taught at. These letters can significantly open more doors for you abroad. Why, you may wonder? Because referral letters serve as powerful testimonials of your teaching capabilities and experiences. They provide evidence that you have successfully taught at different levels and institutions, which broadens your job prospects. With referral letters from various teaching levels (kindergarten, primary school, high school, university), you demonstrate your versatility and increase your chances of getting multiple offers, giving you more options to choose from for a better future.

Standing out above others

Public Profile

Your Image

Upload a very clear and neat professional photo of yourself. Make sure it's a current photo and not an old one from years ago when you looked younger (LOL). It's important that the person schools see on your resume is the person they will meet in person.

Attention to Detail:

- Always double-check your spelling and grammar. This is crucial as it reflects your capability to teach.
- Use a consistent text format throughout your resume. Open Sans is always a winner. Keep all writing the same size across the resume to maintain a professional look.

● We are here for you, let's get you signed!

If you're not sure where to find the perfect resume template, you can use and customize templates from Canva. Simply fill in your own details to create a professional-looking resume.
